Notes for users

These notes are for guidance only. They don't form part of the Trust.

Write the date this Trust is set up. This must be the date the Trust is signed on.

You are the Settlor(s). Write your name(s) and address(es) in 'A'.

Write the names and addresses of the Trustees in 'B'. If you want to be Trustee(s), you must put your name(s) here too.

Part 1 Declaration

This trust is made on the Part 3 Assignment of Original Investment

The Settlor is the beneficial owner of the Original Investment and the Settlor hereby assigns or transfers (as appropriate) the Original Investment to the Trustees upon trust to hold from the date hereof as Trustees subject to the terms of this Trust.

This makes sure that the Trustees can set aside particular assets for a Beneficiary.

The Trustees have the power to change the administrative provisions of this Trust.

The Trustees can release the powers conferred on them.

When a Beneficiary is a minor the benefits are paid to the parents or guardians. Benefits must be used or held for the Beneficiary's benefit.

You, as the Settlor, have the power to appoint new Trustees. After you die, this power passes to the Trustees.

Trustees can resign.

Trustees other than you, as the Settlor, and your spouse or Civil Partner can make reasonable charges for their work on behalf of the Trust, if you agree.

- (c) to deal with any policy of insurance or assurance or annuity comprised in the Trust Fund in all respects as if they were the absolute owners of it and in particular may surrender, convert or exchange the same in whole or in part and exercise any power election or option under a policy and borrow on its security and the receipt by the Trustees for any money payable under the said policy shall be a full and sufficient discharge
 - (d) to appropriate any asset, or any part of any asset, comprised in the Trust Fund in or towards satisfaction of any interest or share in the Trust Fund as may in all the circumstances be reasonable, and for this purpose, the Trustees may from time to time place such value on any or all investments or property as they think fit
 - (e) to create by deed or deeds revocable or irrevocable such additional administrative powers exercisable by the Trustees as the Trustees may from time to time determine to be in the interests of the Beneficiaries or any of them
 - (f) by deed (and so as to bind successive trustees of this Trust) to release or restrict the future exercise of all or any of the powers conferred on them (whether by this deed or by law) either wholly or to the extent specified in the relevant deed, notwithstanding the fiduciary nature of any such power
2. The Trustees shall not be required to diversify the investment of the Trust Fund, nor be liable for the consequences of investing, or keeping the Trust Fund invested, in the shares or obligations of, a single business, company or firm, or in one asset or one type of asset.
 3. The Trustees may pay or transfer any assets comprised in, or any income of, the Trust Fund to which any minor Beneficiary is beneficially entitled, to any parent or guardian of that minor and the receipt of that parent or guardian shall be a full discharge to the Trustees.

Part 6 Retirement, removal, appointment and remuneration of Trustees

1. The Settlor shall have power:
 - (a) to appoint by deed new or additional Trustees
and
 - (b) to dismiss by deed any Trustee Provided Always that the said power of dismissal shall be exercisable only if the Trustees remaining as Trustees after the dismissal include a Trust Corporation (which term has in this Trust the meaning which it has for purpose of section 68(1), paragraph 18 of the Trustee Act 1925 and any statutory re-enactment or modification thereof) or two individuals at least one of whom is not the Settlorand after the Settlor's death the power of appointing new or additional trustees by deed shall vest in the Trustees
2. Any Trustee may retire at any time provided he gives 30 days' written notice to the person who for the time being has the power to appoint new trustees Provided Always that no retirement of any Trustee shall take effect unless and until there are at least two individual Trustees or a Trust Corporation to act as the continuing Trustees or the continuing Trustee as the case may be
3. Any corporate body which is empowered to act as a Trustee may at any time be appointed either as a general trustee or as a custodian trustee hereof and may act by its proper officers in the discharge of its duties as such Trustee and in the exercise of the powers and discretions conferred hereby or by law
4. Every Trustee (including for the avoidance of doubt any body corporate for the time being a Trustee) shall be entitled to remuneration upon such terms as may be agreed by the person or persons who for the time being has or have power to appoint a new trustee and in the absence of such agreement every Trustee shall be entitled to remuneration in accordance with its normal scale of charges (if applicable) at that time Provided Always that the Settlor and the spouse or current Civil Partner of the Settlor shall not be entitled to remuneration as a Trustee in any way

5. Any Trustee (including for the avoidance of doubt any body corporate for the time being a Trustee) other than the Settlor and any spouse or current Civil Partner of the Settlor:
 - (a) who is engaged in any profession, business or trade may be employed by the Trustees and any Trustee so engaged and employed may charge and be paid all reasonable professional business or trade costs and charges for business transactions and time expended and acts done by him (or any partner or employee of his) in connection with this Trust including acts which a Trustee not being engaged in any profession, business or trade could have done personally and whether or not in the usual scope of his profession, business or trade
 - (b) may be employed and reasonably remunerated as a director or other officer or employee or an agent or adviser of any company body or firm in any way connected with the Trust Fund and to keep as his property (and without being liable to account therefore) any reasonable remuneration fees or profits received by him in any such capacity notwithstanding that his situation or office may have been obtained or may be held or retained by means or by reason of his position as one of the Trustees or of any shares, stock, property, rights or powers whatever belonging to or connected with the Trust Fund
 - (c) may transact on behalf of or with this Trust or any Beneficiary any business which he or it is authorised to undertake upon the same terms as would for the time being be made with an ordinary customer, and without accounting for any profit thereby made, and in particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, such Trustee may retain on current account or deposit account or advance at interest all monies necessary or convenient to be retained or advanced in connection with this Trust and may retain any commission or remuneration paid or allowed by stockbrokers, insurance companies, banks or other institutions without being liable to account for any profit thereby made
 - (d) may exercise or concur in exercising all powers and discretions given to him by this Trust or by law notwithstanding that he has a direct or other personal interest in the mode or result of any such exercise but any of the Trustees may nevertheless abstain from acting except as a merely formal party in any matter in which he may be so directly or personally interested and may allow his co-trustees to act alone in relation thereto

Part 7 General Trust provisions

1. This Trust shall be irrevocable.
2. Section 1 of the Trustee Act 2000 shall not apply to the Trustees.
3. No Trustee shall be liable for any loss to the Trust Fund arising by reason of any investment made in good faith or by reason of any mistake or omission made in good faith by any Trustee hereof or by reason of any other matter or thing except wilful and individual fraud or wrongdoing on the part of the Trustee who is sought to be made liable.
